

Los Angeles County

Sheriff's Department Homicide Bureau

INFORMATION WANTED

Victim

SGT. Ruben Whittington

The 61-year-old victim, Ruben Whittington, is a retired Sergeant with the Los Angeles Police Department. He was stopped in an industrial area in the 300 block of Lemon Avenue in the City of Walnut as a result of a flat tire to his car. Whittington had called a tow truck company for assistance. During the time that he summoned the tow company and the arrival of the tow truck to his location, Whittington was murdered in cold blood. Whittington was a twenty-one-year veteran of the Los Angeles Police Department who retired in 1996. His last assignment was field Sergeant at the Hollywood Division. Anyone with information regarding the death of Sgt. Ruben Whittington should call Sheriff's Homicide.
